

New Training Programmes for 2009

- Professional and organisational dangerousness
- Messages for Managers: Supervising complex cases
- Assessment and analysis
- Professional judgment in social care assessments
- Young people who perpetrate domestic violence
- Assessment and intervention with violence in adolescent peer relationships
- Self-harm by young people: causation, consequences and correctives
- Suicidal young people: a framework for understanding and risk assessment
- Pre-birth risk assessments
- Working with resistant and hostile families
- Difficult and dangerous clients: theory, research and practice considerations
- Neglect - A 5-day training programme
- Managing People who present a sexual risk to children (PPRTC)
- Sex offending in specific populations
- Chairpersons skill development
- Multi-agency assessment practice